

Indiana has the best law to keep phone solicitations away. Please don't ruin it by setting exclusionary standards which prohibit states from being more strict. In fact, why don't you just let the states take care of it and forget the Federal bureaucracy?

Our system in Indiana works well. Leave us alone please.